

Advent

MOMENTS

Walking the well-lit path

Advent invites us all to contemplate the well-lit path of our own lives. The blessing of the natural world which surrounds us, the comfort of friends and family and the example of great leaders who have paved the path we now walk upon – St Francis, St Clare, Nano Nagle, Catherine McAuley and Elizabeth Hayes. As Pope Francis reminds us our path is also lit by ... “the rising of a great light which breaks through the night. This light is born in Bethlehem and is welcomed by the loving arms of Mary, by the love of Joseph, by the wonder of the shepherds.

– goo.gl/Fi8ao4

How can you be a well-lit path?
What can you send out in goodness this Advent?

If you send out goodness from yourself, or if you share that which is happy or good within you, it will all come back to you multiplied ten thousand times.

In the kingdom of love there is no competition; there is no possessiveness or control. The more love you give away, the more love you will have.

– Anam Cara: A Book of Celtic Wisdom, John O'Donohue

May we observe generosity in every gift we receive, no matter how small.

– Out of the Ordinary, Joyce Rupp, p14

The Mighty One has done great things for me – Luke 1:49